Title of Module Marketing Strategy Theory (MST)
Code: MARK10016	SCQF Level: 10 (Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework)	Credit Points: 20	ECTS: 10 (European Credit Transfer Scheme)
School:	School of Business & Creative Industries
Module Co-ordinator:	Eileen Conlan	Eileen Conlan

Summary of Module

This module explores the concept of strategic market management, which emphasises that strategy development should be informed by the market environment, rather than just being internally oriented. This recognises the need for the strategic planning process to be proactive rather than reactive, highlights the role of marketing as the primary link between the organisation and its environment, and appreciates the pivotal importance of marketing in formulating and directing the implementation of the organisation's strategies.

The module introduces students to the concept of strategic marketing management as a system that will provide vision to businesses, monitor, and understand the dynamic environment, generate strategic options, and develop marketing strategies based on sustainable competitive advantage.

The topics to be covered include marketing's contribution to strategic management; analysis of environmental, competitive, and internal issues; strategic marketing choices for competitive advantage; segmentation, targeting and positioning strategies; product and innovation strategies; service marketing strategies; pricing, distribution and marketing communications strategies; strategy implementation, monitoring and control.

Indicative Resources: (eg. Core text, journals, internet access)

The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes:

Thompson, Peteraf, Gamble & Strickland (2020) Crafting & Executing Strategy: The Quest for Competitive Advantage, 22nd Edition, McGrawHill Education West, Ford & Ibrahim, (2017) Strategic Marketing, Creating Competitive Advantage, 3rd Edition, Oxford University Press

Phillips, D.M., (2023) Marketing Strategy & Management.

(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure: Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:

Attending lectures and tutorial.

Completing assessments.

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

Please ensure any specific requirements are detailed in this section. Module Coordinators should consider the accessibility of their module for groups with protected characteristics.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)

Assessment: (also refer to Assessment Outcomes Grids below)

This section should make transparent what assessment categories form part of this module (stating what % contributes to the final mark).

Maximum of 3 main assessment categories can be identified (which may comprise smaller elements of assessment).

NB: The 30% aggregate regulation (Reg. 3.9) (40% for PG) for each main category must be taken into account. When using PSMD, if all assessments are recorded in the one box, only one assessment grid will show and the 30% (40% at PG) aggregate regulation will not stand. For the aggregate regulation to stand, each component of assessment must be captured in a separate box.

Please provide brief information about the overall approach to assessment that is taken within the module. In order to be flexible with assessment delivery, be brief, but do state assessment type (e.g. written assignment rather than "essay" / presentation, etc.) and keep the detail for the module handbook.
