Summary of Module

This module is intended to give students a broad introductory knowledge of the main agencies which operate within the criminal justice process.

This module will identify and discuss the competing theories and models behind criminal justice before going on to describe and analyse the theoretical and functional operation of the police, prosecution, courts and judges as well as service agencies such as social work, probation and prisons. Finally the module will consider the validity and reliability of criminal justice statistics.

Key Topics include:

- Models of Criminal Justice
- Crime statistics
- The role of the Police in the Scottish Criminal Justice System
- The role of the Crown Office and Procurator Fiscal Service in the Scottish Criminal Justice system
- Scotland's Criminal Courts and Procedure
- Scotland's Prison System
- Community sentences in Scotland
