Summary of Module

This module will equip participants to explore and understand the values that underpin youth and community ministries in a Christian context or in a Christian perspective. It draws on theological principles consistent with CLD youth and community work while rooting these values in Christian tradition expressed through Scripture, theology, general church practice and particular expressions of Christian faith communities. The module will then support participants to construct and reflect on their own convictions before exploring the values which enable partnership working in communities and churches expressed either in Christian youth ministry, youth or community work, or in relevant secular work or volunteering roles. This module operates alongside the 'Practices of Youth and Community Ministries'.

Indicative Resources
The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes: Borgman, Dean. Foundations for Youth Ministry: Theological Engagement with Teen Life and Culture 2nd ed. Grand Rapids: Baker Academic, 2013. Derr, Colleen. Renewing Communication: Spirit-Shaped Approaches for Children, Youth, and Families. Downers Grove, Illinois: IVP Academic, 2020. Nash, S. and Whitehead, J. (eds). Christian Youth Work in Theory and Practice, London: SCM Press, 2014. Ward, P. Introducing Practical Theology. Mission, Ministry and the Life of the Church, Grand Rapids: Baker Academic, 2017.
(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements
In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time. For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following: Students must attend scheduled sessions, complete learning activities and submit assessments. Detailed guidance will be provided by the module coordinator.

Equality and Diversity
The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code. As a Christian theological college, students should be aware that teaching, discussion and the college's ethos is from a confessional viewpoint. The college actively encourages an environment of openness and religious tolerance, but the main function of the college is the training of ministerial candidates and the learning environment will be supportive of this. Where students need additional support, this is provided by the college team with reference if appropriate to other UWS colleagues, they are referred to Student Support Services for further assistance. In consultation with the student, the needs of individual students are met, wherever practicable, and every effort made to ensure individual students are not disadvantaged.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
