Summary of Module

This module seeks to explore advanced techniques in live ensemble performance.

The module will provide students with the necessary skills to prepare, rehearse and evaluate a live ensemble performance to a professional level.

Students will identify and prepare repertoire for a live ensemble performance. Preparation and repertoire progress will be identified and analysed within an appropriate rehearsal journal.

Students will evaluate progress as the agreed repertoire develops and then perform the set within a professional setting, whilst implementing key concepts and techniques of live performance. Students will also identify and deploy stagecraft techniques appropriate to the chosen repertoire within the performance.

[1] Where contact hours are synchronous/ live and take place fully on campus. Campus-based learning is focused on providing an interactive learning experience supported by a range of digitally-enabled asynchronous learning opportunities including learning materials, resources, and opportunities provided via the virtual learning environment. On-campus contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

[2] The module includes a combination of synchronous/ live on-campus and online learning events. These will be supported by a range of digitally-enabled asynchronous learning opportunities including learning materials, resources, and opportunities provided via the virtual learning environment. On-campus and online contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

[3] Where all learning is solely delivered by web-based or internet-based technologies and the participants can engage in all learning activities through these means. All required contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

[4] Learning activities where the main location for the learning experience is in the workplace. All required contact hours, whether online or on campus, will be clearly articulated to students

Learning and Teaching
In line with current learning and teaching principles, a 20-credit module includes 200 learning hours, normally including a minimum of 36 contact hours and maximum of 48 contact hours. The delivery of the module will consist of a mixture of lectures, interactive sessions, tutorial/workshops, and independent study. Learning and teaching will include the study of Instrumentation, ensemble dynamics, repertoire, professional conduct and mentoring, alongside practical independent study. The teaching and learning of this module will be mostly practical due to the nature of the subject. The module is designed to be delivered within a face-to-face mode of learning, teaching, and assessment. • Weekly lectures and practical workshops • Practical tasks and listening exercises • Meetings with lecturer to discuss progress on assessment tasks • Independent rehearsal and preparation

Learning Activities During completion of this module, the learning activities undertaken to achieve the module learning outcomes are stated below:	Student Learning Hours (Note: Learning hours include both contact hours and hours spent on other learning activities)
Lecture / Core Content Delivery	20
Laboratory / Practical Demonstration / Workshop	20

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:

Equality and Diversity
The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.
(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
