Summary of Module

The module provides students with an understanding of the key areas which need to be considered when developing/designing and implementing organisational HR policies. In providing meaningful insights into this important area, the module explores a variety of HR policy areas:

- Employment Contract (from Recruitment to Termination, etc.);
- Health, Safety & Well-being
- Discrimination in the Workplace
- Disciplinary, Grievance & Conflict
- Leave & Absence Management
- Family-friendly Rights & Flexible Working
- Talent & Performance Management
- ► The Use of Artificial Intelligence (AI)

This is nurtured through the written assessment component, where students will have the opportunity to evaluate HR policies identify good practices and policy issues and make recommendations. Equally importantly, students will explore various mechanisms to engage with (hypothetical) staff and management during the implementation and review of HR policies, where students will have a chance to experiment with this different mechanism during the implementation session assessment.

Learning and Teaching

In line with current learning and teaching principles, a 20-credit module includes 200 learning hours, normally including a minimum of 36 contact hours and maximum of 48 contact hours.

In line with UWS' Curriculum Framework, providing a flexible, student-centred and inclusive approach to learning and teaching, the module has been designed around the delivery of engaging, activity- and discussion-based workshops, nurtured by meaningful online content, including short videos, reading materials, quizzes, etc.

This is further supported by the assessment approach adopted, enabling students to develop both academic and employability-focused knowledge and skills within the key areas of the module content.

The contact hours shown below reflect full-time delivery — these may differ for students studying towards the BA(Hons) People Management due to the blended/work-based learning nature of the programme — please refer to the 'Teaching & Assessment' section on the UWS website (https://www.uws.ac.uk/study/undergraduate/undergraduate-course-search/peoplemanagement) for more information.

Learning Activities During completion of this module, the learning activities undertaken	Student Learning Hours
to achieve the module learning outcomes are stated below:	(Note: Learning hours include both contact hours and hours spent on other learning activities)

The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes:

Armstrong, M. and Taylor, S., (2020), Armstrong's Handbook of Human Resource Management Practice", CIPD - Kogan Page, London

Lewis, D. and Sargeant, M., (2019), Employment Law — The Essentials", CIPD - Kogan Page, London

Details of further resources, including textbooks, journals and online resources will be identified at the beginning of each delivery in the module handbook and made available via the VLE.

(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled oncampus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:

Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending the on-campus lectures/tutorials/workshop. Also, they need to engage with the AULA site regularly to access to the teaching materials and complete assessments and submit these on time.

Students should also reference the BCI Guidance on Implementation of the Revised Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure which details the School attendance and engagement requirements and how this will be monitored for attendance

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

To meet the diverse needs of our student body, we are dedicated to adapting learning experiences where required. This personalised one-to-one approach ensures that all students can succeed, regardless of their background or circumstances. By embracing and promoting these principles, we aim to cultivate a learning community where everyone feels valued, supported, and empowered to achieve their full potential.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
