This module introduced students to fundamental areas in HR and People Management, with an explicit focus on the development of professional skills and knowledge. The module draws from a variety of underlying concepts, including the following:

- Professional and reflective practice in HRM/People Management;
- Academic and professional skills development;
- √ Foundation to HR Policy Development in Organisations;
- √ Fundamentals in HR Systems and Metrics/Analytics.

Students will be required to demonstrate advanced skills as reflective practitioners, supported by a meaningful alignment of their reflective practice to the CIPD Profession Map (Chartered Level), focusing on the following key areas:

- Core knowledge: People Practice; Culture and Behaviour; Business Acumen; Analytics and Creating Value; Digital Working; and Change.
- Core behaviour: Ethical Practice; Professional Courage and Influence; Valuing People; Working Inclusively; Passion for Learning; Insights Focused; Situational decision-making; Commercial

This is also supported by the module assessments which focus on both the notion of people management in practice (facilitation) and a CPD portfolio report, demonstrating reflective practice.

Learning and Teaching

In line with UWS' Curriculum Framework, providing a engaging and active, student-centred and inclusive approach to learning and teaching, the module has been designed around the delivery of engaging, activity- and discussion-based workshops, nurtured by meaningful online support, including drop-in sessions, short videos, reading materials, quizzes, etc. This approach creates more flexibility for students, while also enhancing deeper learning through engagement with peers and teaching staff, both online and in the classroom.

The instruments of assessment are combined to provide learners with externally facing workplace relevant knowledge that is enhanced by a commitment to scholarly practice that enriches competence and resilience. Students will gain core knowledge in interactive activities and apply that knowledge in student-led workshops.

Learning Activities During completion of this module, the learning activities undertaken	Student Learning Hours
to achieve the module learning outcomes are stated below:	(Note: Learning hours include both contact hours and hours spent on other learning activities)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled oncampus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:

Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending the on-campus lectures/tutorials/workshop. Also, they need to engage with the AULA site regularly to access to the teaching materials and complete assessments and submit these on time.

Students should also reference the BCI Guidance on Implementation of the Revised Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure which details the School attendance and engagement requirements and how this will be monitored for attendance

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

To meet the diverse needs of our student body, we are dedicated to adapting learning experiences where required. This personalised one-to-one approach ensures that all students can succeed, regardless of their background or circumstances. By embracing and promoting these principles, we aim to cultivate a learning community where everyone feels valued, supported, and empowered to achieve their full potential.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
