Module Co-ordinator	Dr Susannah Paul
Summary of Module
Legal Advocacy Skills 2 aims to build on the oral and written advocacy skills students developed in Level 7 Legal Advocacy Skills 1.
Students will develop other essential skills for lawyers such as interviewing clients and adopting effective and professional styles of communication.
The module will also examine legal reasoning by exploring the ways in which judges conduct interpretation and application of legal rules. Engaging with the work of key legal theorists and case law, the module will explore the questions of how judges' reason in practice and how judges ought to fulfil their role.
