Module Co-ordinator	Dr Stephen Collins
Summary of Module Building on the work of SCQF 7 Reading Performance, Theory and Performance introduces students to more advanced and specialised theories of performance and reception. Specifically, this module is designed to enable students to consider different frameworks of performance making and reception and to engage in a deeper analysis of the performance event, the context of its creation, dissemination, and reception. Through lectures, tutorials and VLE activity, students will engage with a range of critical theories and apply them to the analysis of performance.

[1] Where contact hours are synchronous/ live and take place fully on campus. Campus-based learning is focused on providing an interactive learning experience supported by a range of digitally-enabled asynchronous learning opportunities including learning materials, resources, and opportunities provided via the virtual learning environment. On-campus contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

[2] The module includes a combination of synchronous/ live on-campus and online learning events. These will be supported by a range of digitally-enabled asynchronous learning opportunities including learning materials, resources, and opportunities provided via the virtual learning environment. On-campus and online contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

[3] Where all learning is solely delivered by web-based or internet-based technologies and the participants can engage in all learning activities through these means. All required contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

[4] Learning activities where the main location for the learning experience is in the workplace. All required contact hours, whether online or on campus, will be clearly articulated to students

Learning Outcomes
L1	Understand, synthesise and apply key theories of performance.
L2	Operate and think reflexively, creatively, critically
L3	Tailor outputs appropriately in order to present complex ideas.
L4	Articulate ideas coherently using appropriate academic conventions including Harvard referencing.
L5

Employability Skills and Personal Development Planning (PDP) Skills
SCQF Headings	During completion of this module, there will be an opportunity to achieve core skills in:
Knowledge and Understanding (K and U)	SCQF 8 Demonstrate a discerning understanding of the relevant theories of performance.
Practice: Applied Knowledge and Understanding	SCQF 8 Apply a discerning understanding of the key theories of performance
Generic Cognitive skills	SCQF 8 Operate and think reflexively, creatively, critically and technically to develop ideas and construct arguments.
Communication, ICT and Numeracy Skills	SCQF 8 Tailor outputs effectively to a range of audiences and purposes
Autonomy, Accountability and Working with Others	SCQF 8 Work, under guidance, with others to acquire understanding of relevant theories.

Indicative Resources
The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes: Fortier, M. (2016) Theory/Theatre an introduction. Oxon: Routledge Barthes, R. (1993) Mythologies. London: Vintage. Aston, E, and Savona, G. (1991) London: Routledge.
(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements
In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time. For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:

Equality and Diversity
The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.
(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
