Module Descriptor

Session: 2024/25

Title of Module: Visual Arts in Context
Code:	SCQF Level: 8 (Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework)	Credit Points: 20	ECTS: 10 (European Credit Transfer Scheme)
School:	School of Business and Creative Industries
Module Co-ordinator:	Chris Mackenzie
Summary of Module
This module consolidates and builds on knowledge established in Level 7 theoretical studies, with a particular focus on photography, contemporary art practice and visual communications. Through a series of lectures and seminar-based discussions, students will develop a deeper understanding of interrelationships between various media and contextual factors informing the creation of such artefacts. They will also develop visual and critical skills in observation and interpretation enabling them to draw upon personal responses to artefacts, while also recognising how these should be distinguished from other relevant meanings. Visual Arts in Context provides students with a contextual awareness for their practice as creative practitioners, in addition to enhancing their intellectual abilities through critical awareness. The module further develops verbal and written communication skills through student-led presentations and written assignments, skills essential for both professional practice and further study. Key Topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Emerging art forms in the 20th Century to present day. • Photography • Contemporary art practice • Visual Communications • Digital Art and Design

*Indicative Resources: (eg. Core text, journals, internet access)

The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes:

D'Alleva, A. (2006) How to Write Art History, London: Laurence King*

Barnet, S. (2007) A Short Guide to Writing About Art (9th edition) New York: Prentice Hall*

Stiles, K., & Selz, P. H. (2012). Theories and documents of Contemporary Art: A Sourcebook of Artists' writings. University of California Press.*

Please ensure the list is kept short and current. Essential resources should be included, broader resources should be kept for module handbooks / Aula VLE.

Resources should be listed in Right Harvard referencing style or agreed professional body deviation and in alphabetical order.

(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure: Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:

Students are required to attend all scheduled classes and participate with all delivered elements of the module as part of their engagement with their programme of study.

Consideration will be given to students who have protection under the appropriate equality law. Please refer to UWS Regulations 5.3.6 – 5.3.8., available at the following link: http://www.uws.ac.uk/current-students/rights-and-regulations/regulatory-framework/

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

Please ensure any specific requirements are detailed in this section. Module Co-ordinators should consider the accessibility of their module for groups with protected characteristics..

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)

Assessment: (also refer to Assessment Outcomes Grids below)

Assessment 1

Essay (1,500 words) Research an artist, designer, art movement, exhibition or artefact. Make critical and reflective observations about the subject matter and its context within 20th and 21st century Visual Art, Design and Culture, it's impact upon society and if/how it has affected other areas of contemporary art and design. Do not simply describe, but enquire, evaluate and where relevant argue or criticise the subject, citing academic references and articles in support of your observations. This will account for 50% of your total mark.

Assessment 2

Produce a presentation (PowerPoint, Video or similar), which you will give to your staff and peer group. (Ten minutes approx.)

Include well-researched visual material, professional layout and clear descriptions outlining the work of an artist, photographer, designer, art movement, exhibition, or artefact. Again, consider the wider impact of the subject and make reflective and considered comment on its importance, or how it might relate to your practice and or professional goals and aspirations within the context of 20 and 21st Century Art, Design and Culture. Cite academic references and articles in support of your observations. This will account for 50% of your total mark.

(N.B. (i) Assessment Outcomes Grids for the module (one for each component) can be found below which clearly demonstrate how the learning outcomes of the module will be assessed.
(ii) An indicative schedule listing approximate times within the academic calendar when assessment is likely to feature will be provided within the Student Module Handbook.)
