Summary of Module

The module builds on learning undertaken in levels seven, eight and nine and seeks to enable the student to build towards an advanced level of critical insights and contemplation necessary in today's unpredictable and complex marketing environment. Understanding fast paced market trends and consumers should be the central focus of any marketing oriented business. It is essential to successful marketing strategy that this understanding is in context of current and future market and competitive dynamics. This module, therefore, aims to build on the understanding of consumer behaviour and core marketing research techniques covered in the level eight and nine. Researchers and marketing executives are now expected to contribute more fully to decision making and analysis and to being the voice of the consumer/market trends within their respective organisations.

The module synthesises cutting edge discussion of modern marketing concepts with the honing of research, problem solving and analytical skills. Upon successful completion of the module students will be able to understand and apply strategies that outlines the critical role of customer insight and provides techniques and strategies that will help marketers identify trends, nurture leads and understand consumers - ultimately, empowering them to grow profits.

Please ensure the list is kept short and current. Essential resources should be included, broader resources should be kept for module handbooks / Aula VLE.

Resources should be listed in Right Harvard referencing style or agreed professional body deviation and in alphabetical order.

(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure: Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following at the following link: Academic engagement procedure

Assessment: (also refer to Assessment Outcomes Grids below)

This section should make transparent what assessment categories form part of this module (stating what % contributes to the final mark).

Maximum of 3 main assessment categories can be identified (which may comprise smaller elements of assessment).

NB: The 30% aggregate regulation (Reg. 3.9) (40% for PG) for each main category must be taken into account. When using PSMD, if all assessments are recorded in the one box, only one assessment grid will show and the 30% (40% at PG) aggregate regulation will not stand. For the aggregate regulation to stand, each component of assessment must be captured in a separate box. Please provide brief information about the overall approach to assessment that is taken within the module. In order to be flexible with assessment delivery, be brief, but do state assessment type (e.g. written assignment rather than "essay" / presentation, etc.) and keep the detail for the module handbook. Click or tap here to enter text.

Assessment 1 – Portfolio of written work – 60%

Assessment 2 – Written Assignment – 40%

- (N.B. (i) Assessment Outcomes Grids for the module (one for each component) can be found below which clearly demonstrate how the learning outcomes of the module will be assessed.
- (ii) An indicative schedule listing approximate times within the academic calendar when assessment is likely to feature will be provided within the Student Module Handbook.)
