Summary of Module

This module is an introduction to Forensic Science protocol and methodology studies by Year 2 of Criminal Justice and Forensic Science and offered as an option to students of Criminal Justice. The module will appeal to those students interested in joining the Police Force either as serving officers or as civilian workers, as it is designed to offer an awareness of what Forensic Science can, and equally importantly, cannot, contribute towards solving a crime. This module contributes to employability in terms of analytical thinking and an awareness of skills involved in fingerprint analysis, blood spatter analysis etc.

The roles and responsibilities of personnel involved in managing and processing a crime scene, and those involved in evidence analysis and evaluation, are discussed with emphasis on the limitations of the roles. The module also covers types of evidence, methods of evidence collection, preservation and packaging, and evidence analysis. The range of types of evidence covered includes (but is not limited to) impressions, trace, biological and chemical evidence. A series of interactive workshops will be undertaken at a level suitable for students who have limited experience of practical forensic skills.

This is a predominantly a face-to-face module but from time-to-time there be online content.

The module is assessed by means of a folio of online quizzes based on workshop activities and the production an academic poster.

| Learning and Teaching | | | | | |
|--|---|--|--|--|--|
| In line with current learning and teaching principles, a 20-credit module includes 200 learning hours, normally including a minimum of 36 contact hours and maximum of 48 contact hours. | | | | | |
| Learning Activities During completion of this module, the learning activities undertaken to achieve the module learning outcomes are stated below: | Student Learning Hours (Normally totalling 200 hours): (Note: Learning hours include both contact hours and hours spent on other learning activities) | | | | |
| Lecture/Core Content Delivery | 24 | | | | |
| Laboratory/Practical Demonstration/Workshop | 12 | | | | |
| Independent Study | 164 | | | | |
| | Hours Total 200 | | | | |
| Indicative Resources: (eg. Core text, journals, inter | net access) | | | | |

The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes:

Andrew Jackson and Julie Jackson, Forensic Science, 4th Ed., Pearson Education Ltd. (2017) ISBN 978-1-292-08818-1

Peter C. White (ed.): Crime scene to court: The essentials of forensic science, 4th edition Royal Society of Chemistry Publishing 2016, ISBN 978-1782624462

Please ensure the list is kept short and current. Essential resources should be included, broader resources should be kept for module handbooks / Aula VLE.

Resources should be listed in Right Harvard referencing style or agreed professional body deviation and in alphabetical order.

(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure: Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:

Attendance at all on campus and online teaching classes. Participation in workshop discussion and activities. Completion of all on-line quizzes before deadlines. Regular use of the Aula site (at least weekly checking of the 'materials' section and keeping up with announcements daily). Completion of an academic poster.

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

Aligned with the University's commitment to equality and diversity, this module supports equality of opportunity for students from all backgrounds and learning needs. Using the VLE, material will be presented electronically in formats that allow flexible access and manipulation of content. This module complies with University regulations and guidance on inclusive learning and teaching practice. Specialist assistive equipment, support provision and adjustment to assessment practice in accordance with the University's policies and regulations can be put in place.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
