Summary of Module
This flexible, online module enables you to engage with the process of implementing and evaluating an evidence-based enhancement to your practice. Underpinned by the principles of Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SOTL), the module will support you to explore ways of communicating change and sharing your practice, alongside the value of doing so. You are expected to have an on-going teaching commitment throughout the module in order to support its practice-based elements and assessment. You are encouraged to complete the module Planning for Enhancement before undertaking this module. NB Modules have been validated to run in all terms but will usually run only once per session. Please contact the module co-ordinator for more information.

¹ Where contact hours are synchronous/ live and take place fully on campus. Campus-based learning is focused on providing an interactive learning experience supported by a range of digitally-enabled asynchronous learning opportunities including learning materials, resources, and opportunities provided via the virtual learning environment. On-campus contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

² The module includes a combination of synchronous/ live on-campus and online learning events. These will be supported by a range of digitally-enabled asynchronous learning opportunities including learning materials, resources, and opportunities provided via the virtual learning environment. On-campus and online contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

³ Where all learning is solely delivered by web-based or internet-based technologies and the participants can engage in all learning activities through these means. All required contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

⁴ Learning activities where the main location for the learning experience is in the workplace. All required contact hours, whether online or on campus, will be clearly articulated to students

Learning Outcomes
L1	Apply effective approach(es) and current research to teaching and/or supporting learning.
L2	Decide criteria for evaluation in relation to selected theoretical positions and approaches to teaching/support of student learning.
L3	Make evidence-based enhancement to practice.
L4	Evaluate changes to practice.
L5	Communicate details of enhancement, change process and results of evaluation to peers, using appropriate academic conventions where relevant.

Employability Skills and Personal Development Planning (PDP) Skills
SCQF Headings	During completion of this module, there will be an opportunity to achieve core skills in:
Knowledge and Understanding (K and U)	SCQF 11 Critical knowledge of theoretical positions and approaches to teaching/support of student learning. Critical awareness of principles of Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SOTL).
Practice: Applied Knowledge and Understanding	SCQF 11 Application of effective approach(es) to make a change in teaching and/or supporting learning. Application of current research to make a change teaching and/or supporting learning. Using evidence to inform decisions about enhancements to practice.
Generic Cognitive skills	SCQF 11 Using selected theoretical positions and approaches to teaching/support of student learning to decide criteria for evaluation. Evaluation of changes in learning and teaching practice.
Communication, ICT and Numeracy Skills	SCQF 11 Using appropriate technology to assist in the evaluation of learning and teaching/supporting learning. Communication with peers. Use of appropriate academic conventions.
Autonomy, Accountability and Working with Others	SCQF 11 Working autonomously to implement and evaluate an enhancement to practice. Taking responsibility for the implementation of an enhancement to practice.

Learning and Teaching
In line with current learning and teaching principles, a 20-credit module includes 200 learning hours, normally including a minimum of 36 contact hours and maximum of 48 contact hours. The learning on this module is online and practice-based. It aims to balance flexibility with the benefits of peer learning. Online discussion spaces and opportunities to collaborate are built into the module. While activities are mostly asynchronous, they are paced throughout the module to support your progress and maximise the opportunities for you to connect with your peers. Online synchronous sessions will be offered to support learning on the module. The materials and activities in the online learning space are intended to help you develop your practice in learning and teaching. You will also be asked to connect your practice to the theories, ideas and principles from the module.

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:

satisfactory engagement with active learning hours, assessment, and the mentoring process.

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)

Assessment (also refer to Assessment Outcomes Grids below)

Assessment 1

Summative Assessment: A negotiated output that captures the evidence-based enhancement and its evaluation. Options include but are not limited to a research poster, a recorded presentation, blog post(s).

Assessment 2

Assessment 3

(N.B. (i) Assessment Outcomes Grids for the module (one for each component) can be found below which clearly demonstrate how the learning outcomes of the module will be assessed.

(ii) An indicative schedule listing approximate times within the academic calendar when assessment is likely to feature will be provided within the Student Module Handbook.)
