Summary of Module
This module introduces a range of concepts which underpin professional practice in career guidance and development and is a core module for both the Postgraduate Certificate and Postgraduate Diploma in Career Guidance and Development. The module introduces students to concepts of professionalism, to the principles that underpin ethical and inclusive practice, and explores how attitudes, values and beliefs impact upon practice. The module examines the major provisions of equalities legislation, and the application of legislation to policy and practice in career guidance and development contexts as well as the principles of referral. The module includes opportunities for students to engage with theories and models of reflective practice and prepares students for work in inter-professional contexts. The EIP module: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Introduces students to concepts of professionalism</li> <li>• Introduces students to principles of ethical practice</li> <li>• Critically analyses approaches to inclusive and non-oppressive practice</li> <li>• Critically analyses equalities legislation and its impact in career guidance and development contexts</li> <li>• Introduces and engages students with approaches to reflective practice</li> <li>• Prepares students for inter-professional working.</li> </ul>

Assessment: (also refer to Assessment Outcomes Grids below)

Learning and teaching in this module include engagement with the University's Learning Experience Platform, Aula. Learning resources are embedded within Aula.

Students will demonstrate that they have met the learning outcomes for the module by submitting two written components of assessment. Component 1 is an essay on a topic covered in the module Units 1 and 2. Component 2 has two sections: a reflective essay on own practice, and a continuous professional development planning task. Students will receive clear guidance relating to the submission of assessment.

Component 1 Written Assessment (40% weighting)

Component 2 Written Assessment (60% weighting)

(N.B. (i) Assessment Outcomes Grids for the module (one for each component) can be found below which clearly demonstrate how the learning outcomes of the module will be assessed.

(ii) An indicative schedule listing approximate times within the academic calendar when assessment is likely to feature will be provided within the Student Handbook.)
