Module Descriptor

Session: 2024/25

Title of Module: Understanding Communities
Code: BACE07006	SCQF Level: Choose an item. (Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework)	Credit Points:  20	ECTS: 10 (European Credit Transfer Scheme)
School:	School of Education and Social Sciences
Module Co-ordinator:	A Cusack
Summary of Module
This module discusses what is meant by community as the context in which practitioners work with people. The place of community in enhancing well-being and facilitating social transformation will be appraised. Focusing on community as a system for connectedness and social cohesion, the module examines historical and contemporary perspectives including geographical, interest and online communities. Students will explore the central role of community as a way of creating meaning and identity among people who define or defy boundaries in order to make sense of their world. Taking an international perspective there will be consideration of the impact of globalisation and of a market driven economy and how different kinds of community can help people to find roots and a sense of belonging. Students will consider how joining a professional CLD community of practice, can contribute to understanding diverse and changing community contexts. Understanding Communities aims to examine new possibilities for community education at micro and macro levels.

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

This module is appropriate for all students irrespective of ethnic status, disability, age, gender, socio-economic background, religious and sexual orientation. To promote inclusive practice, procedures and processes have been subject to Equality Impact Assessment where appropriate. Flexibility and anticipatory adjustments in teaching and learning strategies and in assessment methods are intended to facilitate inclusiveness within this module. In line with current legislation (Equality Act, 2010) and UWS Equality Scheme (2010-13) the School of Education encourages disability disclosure throughout recruitment, selection and in the duration of this module. Emphasis is placed on confidentiality of information, the benefits of disclosure and that no detriment to progress will be experienced.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)

Assessment: (also refer to Assessment Outcomes Grids below)

The assessment for this module will be compatible with published principles and is intended to be both sustainable (fit for contemporary purpose and future development) and constructively aligned (integral to methods for teaching and learning). Quality assurance for assessment is obtained through joint planning and scrutiny in a systematic process each trimester (Quality Assurance and Review Group-QARG). The assignment will therefore be equivalent to a 3000 word paper drawing from a range of assessment instruments that may include academic paper; report; facilitated workshop; illustrated talk; video production; lecture; or poster.
