Summary of Module
This module is designed for students who have already got some knowledge of the initial concepts of academic skills in English. It aims to develop students’ understanding of the necessary academic skills in English to be successful in a UK-based academic context by developing their academic language skills as well as learner autonomy and initiative. During the module, they will build up on the skills introduced in ASE1 to enhance their understanding of basic principles of academic research and develop their skills on how to search for, classify and evaluate documentary sources. Linguistically, students will build up their understanding of different academic reading and writing techniques, that will help them to produce a written assignment, with due attention to text structure, clarity of text, linguistic accuracy, and stylistic appropriateness. In addition, students will continue to develop their academic presentation skills, with due attention to stylistic appropriateness, clarity and linguistic accuracy. Throughout the module, selected areas of grammar, lexis, style, discourse and communication will be developed, and students will be encouraged to develop their independent research skills and learner initiative through guided use of the university library and other resources. At the end of the module, students will be expected to demonstrate a level of language comparable to the mid band of level B2 in the CEFR.

Indicative Resources
The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes: Bailey, S. (2018) Academic writing: a handbook for international students. Fifth Edition. New York: Routledge Cottrell, S (2023) Critical thinking skills; effective analysis, argument and reflection. Fourth Edition. London: Bloomsbury Academic
(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements
In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time. For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following: All fulltime students (part-time should check with their programme leader for any queries) are required to attend all scheduled classes and participate with all delivered elements of the module as part of their engagement with their programme of study. Consideration will be given to students who have protection under the appropriate equality law. Please refer to UWS Regulations, Chapter 1, 1.64 – 1.67, available at the following link: http://www.uws.ac.uk/current-students/rights-and-regulations/regulatory-framework/

Equality and Diversity
The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code. Aligned with the overall commitment to equality and diversity stated in the Programme Specifications, the module supports equality of opportunity for students from all backgrounds and with different learning needs. Using our VLE, learning materials will be presented electronically in formats that allow flexible access and manipulation of content (part-time and distant learning students should check with their programme leader for any queries). The module complies with University regulations and guidance on inclusive learning and teaching practice. Specialist assistive equipment, support provision and adjustment to assessment practice will be made in accordance with UWS policy and regulations. The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Policy can be accessed at the following link: http://www.uws.ac.uk/equality/ Our partners are fully committed to the principles and practice of inclusiveness and our modules are designed to be accessible to all. Where this module is delivered overseas, local equivalent support for students and appropriate legislation applies. https://www.uws.ac.uk/about-uws/uws-commitments/equality-diversity-inclusion/ (N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
