Summary of Module

This module serves as an introductory module for the B.A. Honours Social Work degree programme. Learners will explore the foundations of contemporary social work with reference to professional values and ethics. Theories and approaches for informing practice with service users are introduced. Critical reflection, professional identity and ethical professional practice are developed throughout the module.

- Exploring the nature of contemporary social work;
- Developing knowledge of theories and approaches to engage service users;
- Applying anti-oppressive professional values.

Indicative Resources
The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes: Banks, S. (2021) Ethics and Values in Social Work 5th Edition. Globe press Payne, M. (2021) Modern Social Work Theory 5th Edition Palgrave Macmillan.
(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements
In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time. For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following: It is an SSSC regulatory requirement that students attend 80% of taught sessions. Not meeting the mandatory threshold may result in a student being given an RA decision and not being permitted to submit an assessment until the module has been retaken.

Equality and Diversity
The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.
(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
