Summary of Module

This module builds on the communication and interpersonal skills developed in Professional Communication Skills (Term 1). The module focuses on overarching themes of critical and self-reflection, alongside exploring aspects of self-care which are core to becoming resilient practitioners. Strategies to build resilience, mindfulness, and self-awareness will be explored. Personal reflection on strengths and areas for ongoing development will be required.

- Supports the development of critical reflection and capacity for critically evaluating interpersonal communication skills and use of self.
- Provides an enhanced understanding of professional resilience, cognitive bias and self-care skills.
- Develops a critical understanding of the role of power and commitment to anti-oppressive and anti-racist practice.
- Supports an emerging sense of professional identity and preparation for becoming a professional practitioner.
- Embeds the role of peer feedback in practice development.
