Summary of Module

This module will explore the basic principles and practices of Christian pastoral care, using biblical text, historical examples and contemporary case studies. Spiritual and pastoral caring can be described as the expression of the love of God towards others, in action and relationship, communally and individually. A ministry of faith, hope and love, based on the cardinal virtues, seeks to enable trustfulness and nourish faith, strengthen hopefulness by encouragement, and build personal affirmation by acts and attitudes of faithful love.

Such dispositions as imaginative compassion, thoughtful accompaniment, affective empathy, generous inclusiveness, consistent faithfulness, vocational integrity, confidentiality and discretion, create and sustain the essential relational and communal environment from which Christian pastoral practices grow. The module explores these areas of biblical and theological significance as they are applied to human experience.

Areas of Pastoral Practice to be explored on the basis of these virtues and dispositions include: accompanying the dying and bereaved; celebrating love and marriage; incarnational visitation; pastoral prayer; spiritual friendship; means of grace such as Bible, public worship, Holy Communion and baptism.

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

As a Christian theological college, students should be aware that teaching, discussion and the college's ethos is from a confessional viewpoint. The college actively encourages an environment of openness and religious tolerance, but the main function of the college is the training of ministerial candidates and the learning environment will be supportive of this.

Where students need additional support, this is provided by the college team with reference if appropriate to other UWS colleagues, they are referred to Student Support Services for further assistance. In consultation with the student, the needs of individual students are met, wherever practicable, and every effort made to ensure individual students are not disadvantaged.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
