Module Descriptor

Session: 2024-25

Title of Module: French 3.1
Code: FREN09001	SCQF Level: 9 (Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework)	Credit Points: 20	ECTS: 10 (European Credit Transfer Scheme)
School:	School of Education & Social Sciences
Module Co-ordinator:	L Giraud
Summary of Module
This is a course for students who have studied French 2.2 or equivalent and who are already reasonably fluent in French. By working through French 3.1, students will be brought to the C1 lower level of the Common European Framework Reference (CEFR); the mode of delivery will either be 2 hours a week for 24 weeks (Long Thin Module) or 3 hours a week for 12 weeks (Short Fat module). Students will develop a general understanding of some current social and cultural issues in contemporary French-speaking areas: in particular, metropolitan France but not exclusively. Students will also view and study one or two French films relevant to topics studied in class. Grammar will be integrated in context and addressed according to perceived needs of students. Students will be expected to identify and reflect on difficult grammatical points and produce outwith the class a portfolio which will consist of responses to a set of varied exercises on difficult grammar points and content of the course. Students will be encouraged to use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes and to produce clear, well structured, detailed text on complex subjects. Students will become more confident in understanding a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning and in expressing themselves fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions.

Learning and Teaching

In line with current learning and teaching principles, a 20-credit module includes 200 learning hours, normally including a minimum of 36 contact hours and maximum of 48 contact hours.

This module is an advanced level practical language class which offers the opportunity to students to improve their knowledge of the French language and apply their transferable skills in different contexts. It will also allow them to be introduced to some cultural and social issues in contemporary France. Students will be strongly encouraged to be active participants in class and to make extensive use of University Library resources as well as internet resources outwith the class so that they can be well informed and develop their skills of critical analysis. All four language skills will be practised via a variety of activities such as listening to audio and video TV news/ reports, debates, interviews, guest lecturer's mini-lectures; preparing and delivering oral presentations or summaries using their critical analysis and building up and consolidating their oral proficiency via open discussions and debates; reading challenging articles from French current affairs newspapers and writing a summary or a critical essay on prescribed topics. Grammatical work will be integrated in context and addressed to individual needs via independent learning.

Learning Activities During completion of this module, the learning activities undertaken to achieve the module learning outcomes are stated below:	Student Learning Hours (Normally totalling 200 hours): (Note: Learning hours include both contact hours and hours spent on other learning activities)
Lecture/Core Content Delivery	36
