Module Descriptor

Session: 2024/25

Title of Module: Paul and the Gospel of Jesus L10
Code: THEO10018	SCQF Level: 10 (Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework)	Credit Points: 20	ECTS: 10 (European Credit Transfer Scheme)
School:	School of Education & Social Sciences
Module Co-ordinator:	P de Jong
Summary of Module
This module will supplement other biblical modules by focusing on and integrating most of the principal areas of the theology of Paul in the New Testament, and particularly how the concepts of that theology reflect and reframe the message of Jesus as it is portrayed in the New Testament Gospels. Particular features will include theological exegesis of the Pauline letters and the history of interpretation. Major Christian treatments will be considered as well as representative modern critical scholars. The course will include detailed study of a range of texts in their various forms, an outline survey of modern critical scholarship of the theology of Paul, and the history of Pauline interpretation. There will be time for wider class discussion and theological reflection on human experience as explored within these texts. The student will therefore develop skills in theological reflection, contemporary hermeneutics and critical scholarly engagement with Paul, and appropriation of ancient text as applied in contemporary experience.

Learning Outcomes: (maximum of 5 statements)

These should take cognisance of the SCQF level descriptors and be at the appropriate level for the module.

At the end of this module the student will be able to:

L1	Demonstrate knowledge and critical understanding of the major theological themes of the Pauline letters, with detailed study of some texts and detailed awareness of historical critical issues.
L2	Undertake critical analysis and creative synthesis of the history of interpretation of the set texts, and demonstrate specialist knowledge of their exegetical tradition in modern New Testament study.
L3	Using language and grammar appropriate to the level and with appropriate academic referencing, demonstrate some originality in the discernment of the contour and content of the gospel according to Paul, and evidence competence in the theological appropriation of these texts within the Christian tradition, including areas of controversy.
L4	Exercise initiative, advanced competence, and confidence in class presentation using tools and methods of New Testament exegesis, evidencing theological reflection on human experience and spirituality as portrayed in the Pauline letters.
L5	Identify and analyse a range of various aspects of the social, cultural and historical context of Paul's life and letters.

The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes:

Dunn, J.D.G., Jesus, Paul and the Gospels (Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 2011).

Tabor, J.D., Paul and Jesus: How the Apostle Transformed Christianity (New York: Simon & Schuster, 2012)

Wenham, D., Paul: Follower of Jesus or Founder of Christianity (Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 1995).

Wright, T., Paul: A Biography (London: SPCK, 2018)

(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure: Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

As a Christian theological college, students should be aware that teaching, discussion and the college's ethos is from a confessional viewpoint. The college actively encourages an environment of openness and religious tolerance, but the main function of the college is the training of ministerial candidates and the learning environment will be supportive of this.

Where students need additional support, this is provided by the college team with reference if appropriate to other UWS colleagues, they are referred to Student Support Services for further assistance. In consultation with the student, the needs of individual students are met, wherever practicable, and every effort made to ensure individual students are not disadvantaged.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)

Assessment: (also refer to Assessment Outcomes Grids below)

This section should make transparent what assessment categories form part of this module (stating what % contributes to the final mark).

Maximum of 3 main assessment categories can be identified (which may comprise smaller elements of assessment).

NB: The 30% aggregate regulation (Reg. 3.9) (40% for PG) for each main category must be taken into account. When using PSMD, if all assessments are recorded in the one box, only one assessment grid will show and the 30% (40% at PG) aggregate regulation will not stand. For the aggregate regulation to stand, each component of assessment must be captured in a separate box.

Please provide brief information about the overall approach to assessment that is taken within the module. In order to be flexible with assessment delivery, be brief, but do state assessment type (e.g. written assignment rather than "essay" / presentation, etc) and keep the detail for the module handbook. Assessment 1: Essay 40%

Assessment 2: Essay 60%

(N.B. (i) Assessment Outcomes Grids for the module (one for each component) can be found below which clearly demonstrate how the learning outcomes of the module will be assessed.

(ii) An indicative schedule listing approximate times within the academic calendar when assessment is likely to feature will be provided within the Student Module Handbook.)
