Summary of Module

In Sport and Exercise Placement, you will work closely with a supervisor to develop a needs analysis and learning plan for you as a sport and exercise practitioner. You will engage in work-based learning (WBL) in a placement relevant to your development. As part of your learning, you will be embedded within your chosen context allowing you to choose a professionally relevant focus of development.

You will work with a supervisor to develop reflection and critical thinking in relation to your own learning aligned with your personal, professional and academic interests and needs.

You will be provided with opportunities to observe and apply skills in the chosen discipline area to find innovative and creative solutions to sport and exercise science-related problems. This investigation will be completed with a view to informing future research in the programme of study.

This WBL module can be situated with your existing employer or an alternative employer. You can also access a wide range of partner organisations from UWS to enable you to gain experience in your chosen role.

UWS collaborates with several sports organisations all of whom have provided WBL opportunities to our students (e.g., professional sports teams and organisations, Sports Performance Schools, and National Governing Bodies of Sport).

This module will assist the student in the development of key 'I am UWS Graduate Attributes' to allow those that complete this module to be:

Universal:

- Critical Thinker, Emotionally Intelligent, Collaborative

Work Ready:

- Problem -solver, Motivated, Potential Leader

Successful:

- Innovative, Resilient, Transformational

Employability Skills and Personal Development Planning (PDP) Skills
SCQF Headings	During completion of this module, there will be an opportunity to achieve core skills in:
Knowledge and Understanding (K and U)	SCQF 11 Demonstrate: - Critical understanding of relevant theories, frameworks and principles in consideration of application to current practice.
Practice: Applied Knowledge and Understanding	SCQF 11 Apply knowledge, skills and understanding:

¹ Where contact hours are synchronous/ live and take place fully on campus. Campus-based learning is focused on providing an interactive learning experience supported by a range of digitally-enabled asynchronous learning opportunities including learning materials, resources, and opportunities provided via the virtual learning environment. On-campus contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

² The module includes a combination of synchronous/ live on-campus and online learning events. These will be supported by a range of digitally-enabled asynchronous learning opportunities including learning materials, resources, and opportunities provided via the virtual learning environment. On-campus and online contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

³ Where all learning is solely delivered by web-based or internet-based technologies and the participants can engage in all learning activities through these means. All required contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

⁴ Learning activities where the main location for the learning experience is in the workplace. All required contact hours, whether online or on campus, will be clearly articulated to students

Learning and Teaching
In line with current learning and teaching principles, a 20-credit module includes 200 learning hours, normally including a minimum of 36 contact hours and maximum of 48 contact hours. This module adopts hybrid delivery and is specifically designed to continue empowering and inspiring the student to take control of their future employment development. The learning and teaching activities included within this module are wide ranging and consist of numerous formative (not marked or graded) activities such as individual employment research exercises, discussion forums where students may interact with each other and individual reflective activities following recorded materials, tutorials and readings. This module is delivered across two academic terms; term 1 and term 2. The longer delivery period will allow students to spend more time in real-world settings, working in a discipline closely aligned to their desired area of study. This module requires the completion of a UWS PVG and any student who fails to complete both this and the tripartite agreement by the deadline risks withdrawal from the module.

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:

Attendance of teaching sessions (practical and tutorials), completion of asynchronous activities, and submission of assessments to meet the learning outcomes of the module. For the purposes of this module, academic engagement also includes entering required placement details onto InPlace by specified deadline, completion of PVG in advance of placement and completing required placement hours.

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

This module is appropriate for any student. The learning activities include oral, written, and practical work and, where required, appropriate student support will be put in place.

Please refer to the UWS Equality and Diversity Policy.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
