Summary of Module

A fundamental role of the dental nurse is supporting patient care and the dental team as they engage in a range of clinical skills to support routine and non-routine dental treatment.

The student's competence will be assessed within a clinical environment demonstrating evidence of clinical skills and professionalism. The student must reflect against clinical standards and demonstrate competence at the appropriate level for General Dental Council registration.

Learning and Teaching
In line with current learning and teaching principles, a 20-credit module includes 200 learning hours, normally including a minimum of 36 contact hours and maximum of 48 contact hours.
A variety of learning and teaching strategies will be utilised including lectures, workshops, tutorials, enquiry based learning and simulated practice. Support and guidance will be available from the module team. Additional support including reasonable adjustments for teaching and learning can be individualised for those students with enabling support needs. The learning and teaching strategies on this module contribute to the development of UWS graduate attributes as outlined in "I am UWS" see link:

https://www.uws.ac.uk/current-students/your-graduate-attributes/

Indicative Resources
The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes: Chapman, A. and Felton, S. (2021) Basic Guide to Oral Health Promotion (a basic guide dentistry series) 3rd ed. Oxford: John Willey and Sons Hollins, C. (2019) Levinson's Textbook for Dental Nurses. 12th ed. Oxford: Wiley Blackwell
(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements
In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.
For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following: Where a module has Professional, Statutory or Regulatory Body requirements these will be listed here: The University is committed to providing a supportive learning environment that actively facilitates student success. In this module, there is a high degree of student- led flexibility. This module requires attendance at placement to meet module hours and GDC requirements. You are academically engaged if you are regularly engaged with scheduled live sessions oncampus and online, including engaging with online learning activities in your own time, courserelated learning resources, and with timely completion and submission of assessments.

Whilst we understand that there may be times when conflicting priorities make participation challenging, for you to gain the most from this module it is recommended that you participate in all scheduled live classes and complete your self-directed learning activities in a timely manner.

It may be difficult to pass the assessment associated with this module if you are not regularly engaging with the module work and live classes. We may reach out to check how things are going and offer support if we observe that you have not been attending sessions or completing online activities.

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

This module is appropriate for all students. To promote inclusive practice, procedures and processes have been subject to Equality Impact Assessment where appropriate. In line with the Equality Act 2010 and UWS Refreshed Equality Outcomes 2021-2025 Public Sector Equality Duty Mainstreaming and Equality Outcomes Report 2021 (uws.ac.uk) (pp. 37-39) the School of Health and Life Sciences encourages the disclosure of support requirements, including disability, at the recruitment stage and throughout the duration of the module. Emphasis is placed on confidentiality of information, the benefits of disclosure and that no detriment to progress will be experienced. The School will endeavour to make reasonable adjustments to teaching and learning approaches and arrangements for assessment, and (when applicable) periods of placement, where a student has disclosed specific requirements.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
