Summary of Module

This module provides a general introduction and basic underpinning of the key concepts and major theories employed within the field of psychology, health and wellbeing. This module will firstly introduce students to the core theories and major paradigms in psychology and then guide students in applying these models to health, illness and disease. Health is not merely the absence of illness or disease, but a state of complete physical, social and mental wellbeing. This module therefore promotes an awareness and appreciation of how psychology impacts on health and how physical health affects mental health. Throughout this module, students are invited to analyse how psychological theories are applied in health and social care settings, as well as examining the relationships between physical, mental and social factors that influence the overall wellbeing of individuals.

This module aims to contribute to the following I am UWS graduate attributes:

Universal: inquiring, culturally aware, socially responsible,

Work ready: problem solving, effective communicator,

Successful: innovative, daring.

Attendance and Engagement Requirements
In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time. For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following: In this module, there is a high degree of student-led flexibility. You are academically engaged if you are regularly engaged with scheduled live sessions on-campus and online, including engaging with online learning activities in your own time, course-related learning resources, and with timely completion and submission of assessments.

Whilst we understand that there may be times when conflicting priorities make participation challenging, for you to gain the most from this module it is recommended that you participate in all scheduled live classes and complete your self-directed learning activities in a timely manner.

It may be difficult to pass the assessment associated with this module if you are not regularly engaging with the module work and live classes.

We may reach out to check how things are going and offer support if we observe that your attendance and engagement is lower than expected that is in line with the school policy.

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

In line with current legislation (Equality Act, 2010) and the UWS Equality, Diversity, and Human Rights Code, our modules are accessible and inclusive, with reasonable adjustment for different needs where appropriate. Module materials comply with University guidance on inclusive learning and teaching, and specialist assistive equipment, support provision and adjustment to assessment practice will be made in accordance with UWS policy and regulations. Where modules require practical and/or laboratory based learning or assessment required to meet accrediting body requirements the University will make reasonable adjustment such as adjustable height benches or assistance of a 'buddy' or helper.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
