Summary of Module
The aim of the module is for students to enhance their awareness and understanding of contemporary approaches to Physical Education. The module provides the opportunity for students to explore several key aspects of Physical Education. Whilst module content will be contextualised and flexible to reflect existing and emerging aspects, content is expected to focus on political influence, policy, the rationale for, and complexities of curriculum development, lifelong participation, health and wellbeing and the role of Physical Education in addressing wider social and educational objectives.
This module will assist the student in the development of key 'I am UWS Graduate Attributes' to allow those that complete this module to be:

Learning and Teaching
In line with current learning and teaching principles, a 20-credit module includes 200 learning hours, normally including a minimum of 36 contact hours and maximum of 48 contact hours. The teaching and learning approach will utilise a combination of blended and face to face delivery. Core theoretical content will be predominantly delivered through a series of online materials, including activities and required reading in preparation for taught sessions. Face to face sessions will comprise applied lectures, seminars, and practical sessions. Much of the learning will be achieved through directed independent study tasks, face to face lectures, group work and/or class discussion, applied practical sessions and creative problem solving.

Indicative Resources

The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes:

Core Text

Stidder, G., & Hayes, S. (Eds.). (2012). Equity and Inclusion in Physical Education and Sport (2nd ed.), Routledge.

Journals

Physical Education and Sports Pedagogy

European Review of Physical Education

Sport, Education and Society

(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:

In line with the Academic Engagement and Attendance Procedure, Students are defined as academically engaged if they are regularly engaged with timetabled teaching sessions, course-related learning resources including those in the Library and on the VLE, and complete assessments and submit these on time. Please refer to the Academic Engagement and Attendance Procedure at the following link: Academic engagement and attendance procedure

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

In line with current legislation (Equality Act, 2010) and the UWS Equality, Diversity, and Human Rights Code, our modules are accessible and inclusive, with reasonable adjustment for different needs where appropriate. Module materials comply with University guidance on inclusive learning and teaching, and specialist assistive equipment, support provision and adjustment to assessment practice will be made in accordance with UWS policy and regulations. Where modules require practical learning or assessment, alternative formats and/or roles will be provided for students with physical disabilities which impact participation.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
