Summary of Module

Exploring psychosocial influences on sport and exercise participation is crucial in understanding who takes part and why, who may be excluded, and how we work towards addressing any potential barriers. This module will encourage students to engage with theories of behaviour change, social and personal identity, and facilitating positive sport and exercise environments.

This module develops students in relation to the “I Am UWS” Graduate Attributes:

Universal – Inquiring, Culturally Aware, Socially Responsible

Work-Ready – Knowledgeable, Motivated, Ambitious

Successful – Autonomous, Resilient, Transformational

Successful completion (including achieving a pass) of the module SPOR08041 Psychosocial Aspects of Sport and Exercise, has endorsement by CIMSPA (the Chartered Institute for the Management of Sport and Physical Activity) for the professional standard: Working with Inactive People. CIMSPA have career advice and further learning resources available for members. UWS students receive a discounted rate in the student membership category. To use the professional standard in practice, practitioner membership is required.

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:

Attendance at all teaching sessions on-campus (e.g., lectures, tutorials and practicals), in addition to completion of preparatory online activities and completion of assessments to meet the learning outcomes of the module.

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

In line with current legislation (Equality Act, 2010) and the UWS Equality, Diversity, and Human Rights Code, our modules are accessible and inclusive, with reasonable adjustment for different needs where appropriate. Module materials comply with University guidance on inclusive learning and teaching, and specialist assistive equipment, support provision and adjustment to assessment practice will be made in accordance with UWS policy and regulations. Where modules require practical and/or laboratory based learning or assessment required to meet accrediting body requirements the University will make reasonable adjustment such as adjustable height benches or assistance of a 'buddy' or helper.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
