Summary of Module

This module explores the core concepts and theories associated with sport tourism and sporting events. Students investigate drivers, motivations and the tourist sporting event market alongside the bidding, planning and staging processes associated with large scale sporting events and the sport tourism industry.

Three themes permeate the module:

Sports event tourism: This theme explores the rationale for utilising sports events as a strategic driver of tourism at local, national and international levels. It considers the planning, design and marketing of planned sports events as visitor attractions and assesses their impact upon host destinations. Drawing upon relevant case studies, students develop an understanding of the competitive bidding environment and reflect upon the complex processes undertaken to secure major events. This theme also considers the future of major events within sustainable tourism strategies.

Strategic planning for sports events: This theme addresses the planning, developing and marketing of planned sports events. Management of sports events for social, economic, environmental and tourism benefit are examined.

Operational delivery of sports events: This theme considers the event planning process, principles of event management and event organisation of a sport event. The application of theory in event teambuilding, event planning, administration, marketing, finance, health and safety/risk, event monitoring and control techniques in relation to the organisation of a sport event are covered.

This module will assist the student in the development of key 'I am UWS Graduate

Attributes' to allow those that complete this module to be:

Universal:

- Critical Thinker
- Emotionally Intelligent
- Collaborative

Work Ready:

- Problem -solver

- Motivated
- Potential Leader

Successful:

Learning Outcomes
L1	Engage critically in global debates about the technological, social, environmental and ethical dimensions of sports tourism and events.
L2	Review and assess the factors that have contributed to the development of sport events as a distinct niche within the broader events industry.
L3	Utilise case studies and examples of good practice to contextualise theories and concepts

<sup>1</sup> Where contact hours are synchronous/ live and take place fully on campus. Campus-based learning is focused on providing an interactive learning experience supported by a range of digitally-enabled asynchronous learning opportunities including learning materials, resources, and opportunities provided via the virtual learning environment. On-campus contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

<sup>2</sup> The module includes a combination of synchronous/ live on-campus and online learning events. These will be supported by a range of digitally-enabled asynchronous learning opportunities including learning materials, resources, and opportunities provided via the virtual learning environment. On-campus and online contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

<sup>3</sup> Where all learning is solely delivered by web-based or internet-based technologies and the participants can engage in all learning activities through these means. All required contact hours will be clearly articulated to students.

<sup>4</sup> Learning activities where the main location for the learning experience is in the workplace. All required contact hours, whether online or on campus, will be clearly articulated to students

(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements

In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.

For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:

Attendance of teaching sessions (lectures, practical sessions, and tutorials), completion of asynchronous activities, and submission of assessments to meet the learning outcomes of the module.

Whilst we understand that there may be times when conflicting priorities make participation challenging, for you to gain the most from this module it is recommended that you participate in all scheduled live classes and complete your self-directed learning activities in a timely manner.

It may be difficult to pass the assessment associated with this module if you are not regularly engaging with the module work and live classes. We may reach out to check how things are going and offer support if we observe that you have not been attending sessions or completing online activities.

Equality and Diversity

The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.

In line with current legislation (Equality Act, 2010) and the UWS Equality, Diversity, and Human Rights Code, our modules are accessible and inclusive, with reasonable adjustment for different needs where appropriate. Module materials comply with University guidance on inclusive learning and teaching, and specialist assistive equipment, support provision and adjustment to assessment practice will be made in accordance with UWS policy and regulations. Where modules require practical and/or laboratory based learning or assessment required to meet accrediting body requirements the University will make reasonable adjustment such as adjustable height benches or assistance of a 'buddy' or helper.

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
