| Learning and Teaching |
|---|
| In line with current learning and teaching principles, a 20-credit module includes 200 learning hours, normally including a minimum of 36 contact hours and maximum of 48 contact hours. |
| The teaching and learning approach will utilise a combination of blended and face to face delivery. Core theoretical content will be predominantly delivered through a series of online materials, including recorded lectures. Face to face sessions will comprise applied practical sessions in tutorials. Much of the learning will be achieved through directed independent study tasks, group work and/or class discussion, and creative problem solving. |

| Learning Activities During completion of this module, the learning activities undertaken to achieve the module learning outcomes are stated below: | Student Learning Hours (Note: Learning hours include both contact hours and hours spent on other learning activities) |

| Indicative Resources |
|---|
| The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes: |
| Recommended texts: |
| Chelladurai, P (2017) Managing Organizations for Sport and Physical Activity: A Systems Perspective. Oxon: Routledge. |
| Chelladurai, P & Kerwin, S (2017) Human Resource Management in Sport and Recreation. Champaign, IL: Human Kinetics. |
| Hoye, R., Smith, A., Nicholson, M., & Stewart, B (2015) Sport Management: Principles and Applications. Oxon: Routledge. |
| (N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material) |

| Attendance and Engagement Requirements |
|---|
| In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time. |
| For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following: |
| 100% Attendance at all module events and consistent weekly engagement with online materials. |

| Equality and Diversity |
|---|
| The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code. |
| In line with current legislation (Equality Act, 2010) and the UWS Equality, Diversity, and Human Rights Code, our modules are accessible and inclusive, with reasonable adjustment for different needs where appropriate. Module materials comply with University guidance on inclusive learning and teaching, and specialist assistive equipment, support provision and adjustment to assessment practice will be made in accordance with UWS policy and regulations. Where modules require practical learning or assessment, alternative formats and/or roles will be provided for students with physical disabilities which impact participation. |
| (N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School) |
