Summary of Module

This module builds upon the content of the prerequisite L9 module Contemporary Issues in Physical Education and School Sport. The module provides the opportunity for students to develop their knowledge and understanding of advanced perspectives within Physical Education, apply those perspectives practically and critically self-evaluate their practical application. The module content will be contextualised and flexible to reflect the constantly evolving nature of Physical Education and is expected to explore, but not limited by, the following:

Critical Perspectives

Social Justice

Lifestyles

Inclusion

Holistic Development

Learner Centred Approaches

Domains of Learning

Values

Health & Wellbeing

This module will assist the student in the development of key 'I am UWS Graduate Attributes' to allow those that complete this module to be:

Universal:

• Critical Thinker

• Analytical

• Research Minded

Work Ready:

• Knowledgeable

• Influential

• Ambitious
Successful:
• Innovative
• Creative
• Transformational

Learning and Teaching
In line with current learning and teaching principles, a 20-credit module includes 200 learning hours, normally including a minimum of 36 contact hours and maximum of 48 contact hours.
The teaching and learning approach will utilise a combination of activities in a flexible, hybrid approach to delivery. Theoretical content will be made available through the virtual learning environment including activities and required reading in preparation for taught sessions. Much of the learning will be achieved through directed independent study tasks. Synchronous sessions will comprise of a balanced blend of lectures, seminars and applied practical sessions involving group work, class discussion and creative problem solving.

Learning Activities During completion of this module, the learning activities undertaken to achieve the module learning outcomes are stated below:	Student Learning Hours (Note: Learning hours include both contact hours and hours spent on other learning activities)
Tutorial / Synchronous Support Activity	12
Laboratory / Practical Demonstration / Workshop	12
Asynchronous Class Activity	12

Indicative Resources
The following materials form essential underpinning for the module content and ultimately for the learning outcomes:
Core Text
Capel, S & Blair, R (Eds.). (2020) Debates in physical education (2nd ed). London, Routledge
Journals
Physical Education and Sports Pedagogy
European Review of Physical Education
Sport, Education and Society
(N.B. Although reading lists should include current publications, students are advised (particularly for material marked with an asterisk*) to wait until the start of session for confirmation of the most up-to-date material)

Attendance and Engagement Requirements
In line with the Student Attendance and Engagement Procedure, Students are academically engaged if they are regularly attending and participating in timetabled on-campus and online teaching sessions, asynchronous online learning activities, course-related learning resources, and complete assessments and submit these on time.
For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:
In line with the Academic Engagement and Attendance Procedure, Students are defined as academically engaged if they are regularly engaged with timetabled teaching sessions, course-related learning resources including those in the Library and on the virtual learning environment (VLE), and complete assessments and submit these on time. Please refer to the Academic Engagement and Attendance Procedure at the following link: Academic engagement and attendance procedure
For the purposes of this module, academic engagement equates to the following:
Attendance of teaching sessions (lectures, practical sessions, and tutorials), completion of asynchronous activities, and submission of assessments to meet the learning outcomes of the module.

Equality and Diversity
The University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Procedure can be accessed at the following link: UWS Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Code.
In line with current legislation (Equality Act, 2010) and the UWS Equality, Diversity, and Human Rights Code, our modules are accessible and inclusive, with reasonable adjustment for different needs where appropriate. Module materials comply with University guidance on inclusive learning and teaching, and specialist assistive equipment, support provision and adjustment to assessment practice will be made in accordance with UWS policy and regulations. Where modules require practical learning or assessment, alternative formats and/or roles will be provided for students with physical disabilities which impact participation.

Please refer to the UWS Equality and Diversity Policy at the following link: UWS Equality and Diversity Policy

(N.B. Every effort will be made by the University to accommodate any equality and diversity issues brought to the attention of the School)
